To whom it may concern,

AGORA School of Business is a partner of Universidad Católica de Murcia (UCAM). Through this partnership, AGORA School of Business offers Master's degree programs and short courses, accredited by Universidad Católica de Murcia (UCAM) as official Master's and short courses (título propio), delivered by AGORA School of Business.

Successful completion of all program requirements will lead to a Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.), or University short courses as University (título propio) degrees awarded through Universidad Católica de Murcia (UCAM).

Universidad Católica de Murcia (UCAM) is a recognized Spanish University with degree awarding powers. Evidence of this can be found according to the Royal Decree 1509/2008 of Regulation of the Registry of Universities, Centers and University Degrees.
